SPECIAL REPORTS ARRANGED FOR ON A COST TO SUBSCRIBER BASIS

Special reports contracted for on a cost basis are listed in current publications so that all users of foreign trade statistics may be informed of the type of reports being prepared and the cost involved. These special reports cover foreign trade data in greater detail or in different arrangement than that available in the regularly published statistics, or supply at an early date information which will be published later. The entire cost of the special work required to compile or duplicate the information from the basic data available in the Bureau is charged to the subscriber.

The reports listed below are those which have been initiated since the last published list, covering statistics related to the data shown in this report. Special reports covering statistics related to other types of foreign trade data are listed in the current foreign trade reports covering such data. Reports previously contracted for are listed in earlier issues of this report, or in issues of the Foreign Trade Statistics Notes (published through the August 1960 issue and now discontinued). Additional subscribers may purchase any special reports listed in any issue. The maximum payment required in each case will be at the rate shown in the list. Unless otherwise indicated, the prices listed cover subscriptions through the end of the calendar year. Where the period covered is less than a full calendar year, the actual period covered is indicated. When more than one user subscribes to one of these reports at the beginning of a calendar year, the cost is pro-rated among all subscribers. If a new subscriber requests the report during the calendar year, the cost to him in most cases is the same as the cost to each original subscriber.

Cost-sharing arrangements with the original subscribers are sometimes suggested in such cases when the report is a costly one. Information furnished on a cost basis usually will not be publicly released by the Bureau without charge or at a reduced rate until after six months, but exceptions are made in the case of data which the Bureau regards as of general interest.

SPECIAL REPORTS ARRANGED FOR ON A COST TO SUBSCRIBER BASIS—Continued

Subscribers who are interested in information which is not obtainable from the regularly published foreign trade statistics reports, and not listed as a special report, may inquire as to the possibility of obtaining the desired information and request a cost estimate for initiating a new special report. The Bureau's policy with regard to services furnished at cost is described more fully in an article entitled "Policy in Regard to Release of Foreign Trade and Shipping Statistics Reports Prepared for Private Organizations on a Cost Basis" in the November 1962 issue of this report. Reprints describing these policies are available upon request to the Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. Inquiries regarding the possibility of obtaining unpublished data, or requests for copies of existing special reports, should also be addressed to that Division.

GENERAL EXPLANATION

COVERAGE

Types of Shipments Included

The import statistics include government as well as non-government shipments of merchandise from foreign countries to the United States. However, American goods returned by the United States armed forces for their own use are excluded. Shipments between the United States, its outlying possessions and Puerto Rico are not reported as United States imports, but imports into Puerto Rico from foreign countries are considered to be United States imports and are included in this report. Merchandise shipped under Customs custody through the United States in transit from one foreign country to another is not reported as imports. In general, the import statistics are a complete record of the physical movement of merchandise into the United States from foreign countries (except for intransit shipments), but there are some exclusions of items of relatively small importance in terms of total value, such as personal and household effects.

Imports for consumption shown in this report consist of merchandise entered into United States consumption channels, i.e., merchandise released from Customs custody immediately upon arrival, merchandise entered into bonded manufacturing warehouses (other than smelting and refining warehouses), merchandise withdrawn from bonded storage warehouses for release into domestic consumption channels, and imported ores and crude metals which have been processed in bonded smelting warehouses.

Monthly Coverage

It is the objective of the compiling procedures, insofar as practical, to include shipments in the imports for consumption statistics for the month of import which, in general, is based on the date of filing of the consumption entry or warehouse withdrawal document.[1] However, because of processing problems, there has always been a carry-over of a small percentage of items from the proper month to a subsequent month (usually the month immediately following). The amount of this carry-over was increased a few years ago in order to take advantage of early release dates made possible with the use of electronic equipment.

RELATED INFORMATION

Information is also compiled for general imports, which represent total arrivals of imported goods (except for intransit shipments), i.e., merchandise released from Customs custody immediately upon arrival plus merchandise entered into bonded storage warehouses, bonded manufacturing warehouses, and bonded smelting and refining warehouses immediately upon arrival. General import figures covering total trade, country totals and Customs district totals are published monthly. General import commodity statistics are not published but are available for reference purposes.

Trade between the United States, Puerto Rico and United States possessions (not included as United States imports) is presented separately in Report No. FT 800. Statistics on the movement of intransit merchandise arriving at or leaving the United States by vessel (not included in this report) are also compiled and presented in summary form in Report No. FT 985. In addition, transportation statistics (showing shipping weight as well as value information) are compiled covering that part of general imports of merchandise which arrives by vessel. Summary vessel transportation statistics for both imports and exports are presented in Report No. FT 985. Effective with statistics for January 1962, information is being compiled on United States general imports of merchandise by air. These data are published in Reports FT 380, FT 390 and FT 986. A more complete description of the coverage and presentation of the various types of statistics mentioned above will be found in the introductions to the specified reports.

SOURCE OF INFORMATION

The source of information for all of the imports included in this report is the import entry and warehouse withdrawal forms which importers are required to file with Collectors of Customs. Effective January 1, 1962, statistical factors of country of origin, net quantity, value, and commodity classification are verified or corrected as necessary by Customs examiners on all formal consumption and warehouse entries.[2] This verification of statistical data is made at the time the examiner reviews invoices and samples of merchandise for duty and other Customs purposes, and the statistical copy of the entry is corrected by the examiner at that time if he finds that it does not accurately reflect the information called for by the statistical requirements. Information on warehouse withdrawals, which account for approximately 10 percent of the total value of imports for consumption, while not subject to the examiner verification procedure directly, should be improved indirectly (due to "education" of importers/brokers) by the verification of the warehouse entries to which they correspond.

VALUATION

The dollar value shown in the import statistics is defined generally as the market value in the foreign country, excluding the United States import duties, ocean freight and marine insurance.

COMMODITY INFORMATION

Commodity Classification

Effective with the statistics for September 1963, import commodity information is compiled in accordance with the classifications in Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA), an official publication of the United States Tariff Commission embracing the legal text of the Tariff Schedules of the United States together with statistical annotations. TSUSA replaces Schedule A, Statistical Classification of Commodities Imported into the United

[1] For shipments by vessel, merchandise is not included in the statistics prior to the date of formal entrance of the vessel (i.e., the date of the inward Customs manifest for the vessel).

[2] For information on the effects of examiner verification, see the article entitled "Level of Accuracy in Import Statistics" in the October 1961 issue of this report.

States, which was previously used for reporting statistical data in import reports and tabulations. TSUSA also replaces United States Import Duties Annotated for Statistical Reporting (USIDA), the basic manual previously used in the initial reporting of commodity information on import entry and withdrawal forms.

The TSUSA classifications are arranged in this report in the order of the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised. The data are presented in SITC section by SITC group by TSUSA number by country of origin arrangement. The table entitled "Imports of Merchandise For Consumption By SITC Section By SITC Group" shows the SITC section and group codes and their complete descriptions. The assignment of SITC group codes to the Tariff classifications was originally made by the Tariff Commission. In some instances where a Tariff classification contains commodities which are classified in two or more SITC groups, the Tariff classification was assigned to the SITC group believed to account for the greatest proportion of imports. Correlation lists which show the SITC group code assigned to each TSUSA number and the TSUSA numbers included in each SITC group are included in the September 1963 issue of this report. Copies of these correlation lists may be obtained from the Bureau of the Census, upon request.

Some of the commodity descriptions in this report are necessarily abbreviated to save printing costs and, therefore, in many cases they do not contain all of the qualifying information necessary to clearly define the commodity for which statistics are shown. For complete description of the individual TSUSA classifications, reference should be made to Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (1963), Tariff Commission Publication 103, available at the office of the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, at offices of local Collectors of Customs, and Department of Commerce Field Offices. Reference should also be made to the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised (United Nations, New York, 1961--Statistical Papers, Series M, No. 34) for additional information regarding these classifications.

TSUS Data Being Prepared for Prior Periods

In order to provide some information for use in making comparisons between the statistics compiled in accordance with TSUSA and those for periods prior to the introduction of TSUSA, special publications containing data in terms of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS) are being prepared. TSUS classifications are the 5-digit Tariff items from which the 7-digit TSUSA classifications are formed by combining the 5-digit item number with a 2-digit statistical suffix. More detailed information regarding these special publications is presented in special notices included in the various monthly issues of this report.

Estimated Data for Low-Valued Imports

From January 1958 through August 1963, the data for Schedule A commodity classifications, with the exception of commodity number 9999 500, have excluded information on imports valued under $100 reported on formal immediate consumption entries and imports reported on informal entries (by definition, valued not more than $250). In addition, effective January 1963, the individual commodity classifications exclude data on warehouse withdrawals for consumption valued under $100. In compiling the statistics for September 1963 and subsequent periods, these procedures for the exclusion of low-valued imports from the individual commodity classifications will continue to be in effect. It follows that the import statistics for individual commodities are undercounted to the extent that shipments of the commodity are made in lots which are excluded from the commodity statistics under this policy. The total value so excluded amounts to about one percent of the monthly import total. Value estimates based on a one-percent sample of these "low-valued" shipments are shown by country under TSUSA number 999.9500 and are included in the totals for SITC group 990, SITC section 9 and the over-all import total. The estimates are also included in the totals for individual countries as published in Reports FT 950-I and FT 120.[3] Although subject to considerable sampling variability,[4] particularly where the estimated amounts are relatively small, these estimates may be of some interest as a rough guide to the general magnitude of the effects which the exclusion of the items has on the commodity data for individual countries.

Descriptions of the special handling of the low-valued shipments in effect prior to January 1958 are carried in the publications for those periods. These may be referred to in making comparisons of earlier figures with data for 1958 and subsequent periods. The January 1958 through December 1961 issues of this report contain a discussion of the effect on statistics of the changes made in January 1958 in the handling of low-valued shipments, and a brief summary of the handling in earlier periods.

Classifications for Which Only Quantity Information Is Reported

For technical reasons, TSUSA numbers which have been established to provide for the reporting of quantity data only are excluded from all monthly tabulations and publications. (These commodity classifications should not be confused with those which provide for the reporting of the dollar value of imports and two units of quantity under the same TSUSA number. Both units of quantity for such classifications will continue to be published.) Data for these quantity-only commodity classifications which are excluded

[3] See Report No. FT 930-I for handling of the low-value estimates in the import reports by economic class, and Report No. FT 970-I for the handling in the reports by Customs District.

[4] The estimated total for low-valued imports reported under TSUSA number 999.9500 is subject to a sampling variability of 3 to 4 percent. This means that the chances are 2 out of 3 that a complete tabulation would have resulted in a figure that differed from the estimate by no more than 3 to 4 percent. The estimates by country under commodity number 999.9500 are subject to greater sampling variability - around 10 percent for countries with about 200 low-valued shipments in the sample; around 20 percent for countries with about 75 shipments in the sample; and over 20 percent for smaller sample sizes. For more detailed indications of the effect of sampling on the estimates for low-valued imports by country see the "Explanation" in front of Report No. FT 120, U.S. Imports of Merchandise for Consumption, Country of Origin by SITC Commodity Group.

from the statistics are compiled as supplementary information which is available from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. It may be necessary to make a small charge for the transcription of this information in the form of a special report for release to interested parties. Reference copies of the supplemental information are available in the New York Office, Economic Operations Division, Bureau of the Census, Room 434, Customhouse, New York, New York.

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

The country reported in the statistics as the country of origin is defined as the country where the merchandise was grown, mined, or manufactured. In instances where it is known that the country of origin cannot be determined, the country of shipment is shown and footnoted in this report.

The geographic definitions of countries reported are shown in Schedule C, Classification of Country Designations Used in Compiling the United States Foreign Trade Statistics. Country names which are abbreviated in this report to save space are shown in full in Schedule C, together with descriptions of the countries, adjacent provinces, territories, islands, or other areas considered a part of the country for statistical purposes. Schedule C is published as Annex B in TSUSA (See "Commodity Information" above). A separate edition of Schedule C is also available free upon request to the Bureau of the Census.

To save printing costs complete commodity by country of origin information is not shown in the monthly issues of this report. For each TSUSA number, separate country of origin information is shown only for countries from which imports during the period covered by the report were $10,000 or more. Imports of that commodity originating in countries from which the amount shipped was less than $10,000 are presented as a combined total without country of origin detail and identified as "OTH CTY" (other countries).[5] Information on imports originating in countries from which the amount shipped was less than $10,000 can be supplied upon request. A charge may be made to cover the cost of preparing this detailed information.

Countries are listed for each commodity in this report according to continents, in sequence within each continent from north to south and west to east, in accordance with Schedule C. The omission of a country name under a commodity classification indicates no imports of that commodity from that country or imports of less than $10,000.

REVISIONS IN PREVIOUS MONTHS' REPORTS

Significant revisions to data published in this report for earlier months of the current and previous year are shown periodically at the back of this report. With the exception of very important changes, any revisions to data for earlier years are held for reflection in the figures to be published in Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States for that year.

SOURCES OF FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT IMPORT STATISTICS

A complete discussion of the compilation procedures and coverage for import statistics will be found in the Foreword to the latest edition of Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States. (Copies available for reference at public libraries). A Catalog of United States Foreign Trade Statistical Publications is also available. Supplementary information and explanations of interest to users of foreign trade statistics (such as announcements of changes in types of shipments covered by current statistics, unusual shipments, problems of valuation and classification, changes in statistical procedures, etc.) which were formerly included in a separate publication, Foreign Trade Statistics Notes, are now being included as special announcements in current issues of this report and other statistical publications. Copies of such announcements are also attached to reference copies of tabulations, where appropriate. Data in this report are available for reference purposes prior to the publication of the report or may be obtained in advance of publication on payment of the cost of a special report. Reports providing additional detail compiled but not published can be obtained on a cost basis. For free copies of the catalog or for further information regarding reference copies of tabulations or the availability of special reports, request should be made to the Bureau of the Census.

[5] For commodities for which quantity is reported in two different units, complete country of origin information is shown for the quantity in terms of the second unit, even though the corresponding value for some countries may be less than $10,000.

CHANGES IN PRESENTATION OF U.S. IMPORT STATISTICS

EFFECTIVE 1964

Effective with the data for February 1964, significant changes have been inaugurated by the Bureau of the Census in the compilation and publication of import data which are of special interest to users of data formerly issued in report series FT 110 and FT 120. These reports have been consolidated and redesigned and will be issued in report series FT 125. This brochure describes the scope and arrangement of the new report, furnishes a copy of Schedule A (Revised), and announces the availability of certain classes of data by special subscription. This material is presented as follows:

Changes in Presentation of United States Import Statistics Effective 1964

General Explanation

Import Statistics to be Available on New Basis

Effective with February 1964 statistics, the basic import data, initially compiled in terms of the commodity classifications of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA), will be published by the Bureau of the Census in printed reports presenting current month and cumulative year-to-date information in a rearranged commodity system convenient for general analytical use and for comparison with trade data of other countries. At the same time, a new subscription service is being inaugurated to make the detailed TSUSA commodity by country information which was formerly printed readily available to users who wish to obtain this complete detail for the particular commodities in which they are interested.

The Plan for Publication of Monthly Data

Highlights of the changes represented by the new publication plan for the presentation of the monthly import statistics are as follows:

(1) A new publication, Report FT 125, United States Imports of Merchandise for Consumption, will include both the commodity by country and the country by commodity arrangements of the imports for consumption data under one cover. It will replace Report FT 110, United States Imports of Merchandise for Consumption, Commodity by Country of Origin, and Report FT 120, United States Imports of Merchandise for Consumption, Country of Origin by SITC Commodity Group, both of which will be discontinued.

(2) Cumulative year-to-date information, as well as information for the current month, will be presented in Report FT 125.

(3) Commodity by country information will be presented in Report FT 125 in terms of approximately 2,200 seven-digit commodity classifications, under a commodity classification system (Schedule A, Revised) based upon the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised (SITC).[1] The complete detail in terms of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA) will not be included in the new publication, but will continue to be readily available, as described in (5) below.

(4) Data in terms of 4-, 3-, 2-, and 1-digit groupings of the SITC will be presented in Report FT 125 for individual countries, and for groupings of countries representing major trading areas.

(5) The complete TSUSA by country of origin detail, formerly included in Report FT 110 within the framework of the 3-digit SITC classifications, will now be available for each current month in straight TSUSA classification number order. It will be made available in the form of copies of excerpts from an unpublished tabulation, IM 146, at a nominal cost for individual TSUSA subparts. The excerpts will show both imports for consumption and general import data. The complete tabulation IM 146 showing country of origin detail for all 10,000 TSUSA classifications will be available for reference use, without charge, at various principal cities throughout the country.

The Plan for Annual Publications

A new plan for the publication of annual import data has also been adopted, to be effective for 1964 statistics. Annual data in the Report FT 125 arrangements will automatically appear as cumulative year-to-date information in the December issue of that report. In addition, a separate annual TSUSA by country of origin publication is planned, which will present the data on both imports for consumption and general imports in TSUSA commodity number order. Finally, annual imports for consumption data will also be published in an arrangement based on the Standard Industrial Classification product code. In this arrangement, the data will be summarized into approximately 2,000 commodity classifications for convenient comparison with data on United States production.

The New Monthly Publication, Report FT 125

The new Report FT 125 will contain data on United States imports for consumption in several different arrangements, as follows:

Table 1 - World totals for each 3-, 2-, and 1-digit SITC classification (without country of origin detail), current month and cumulative year-to-date.

Table 2 - Data for each of the approximately 2,000 7-digit Schedule A, Revised, items within the SITC framework, in complete country of origin detail, current month and cumulative year-to-date.

Table 3 - Major trading area with 4-digit Schedule A, Revised, totals and 3-, 2-, and 1-digit SITC totals for each area, current month and cumulative year-to-date.

Table 4 - Country of origin with 4-digit Schedule A, Revised, totals and 3-, 2-, and 1-digit SITC totals for each country, current month and cumulative year-to-date.

Sample sheets illustrating the arrangement of the data in the new publication are being furnished with this explanation. (Annex A)

Since Report FT 125 is being inaugurated with statistics for the month of February 1964 and contains cumulative data, January 1964 data for any given segment of trade can be derived by subtracting February figures from the corresponding cumulative total.

[1] United Nations Statistical Papers, Series M, No. 34, 1961.

The classification system used in the report (Schedule A, Revised, Statistical Classification of Commodities Imported Into the United States, based on the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised) was worked out by the Bureau of the Census to provide approximately 2,200 useful summarizations of the detailed commodity data originally compiled in terms of the TSUSA. In general, the estimated magnitude of trade was used as a basis for determining the extent of the summarization in the various commodity areas. Within the limits of the convertibility of the TSUSA to the SITC, actual SITC classifications and summarizations are reflected in Schedule A, Revised. New classifications within the SITC framework have been set up in other cases. The details of Schedule A, Revised, are not considered final, and users are invited to send comments or requests for changes to the Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census, by October 1, 1964. These will be considered in connection with possible modifications of Schedule A, Revised, to be effective with January 1965 statistics. Separately, there is attached a more complete explanation of Schedule A, Revised, and its relation to TSUSA and to the SITC, Revised. Conversion tables are supplied with the explanation, showing for each of the revised Schedule A classifications the TSUSA numbers which it includes, and for each TSUSA number the revised Schedule A classification number in which it is included in Report FT 125. (Annex B)

Present subscribers to Reports FT 110 and FT 120 will automatically receive Report FT 125, effective with the February 1964 report, and continuing until the expiration of their subscription period, at which time they will be sent a renewal notice at the new rate. Because of the change-over, the release date for the FT 125 for the month of February may be later than the expected schedule for later months. The subscription price for Report FT 125 will be $8.00 per year, domestic, $2.00 additional for foreign mailing, and $1.00 per single copy. Back issues will not be furnished and new subscriptions will be entered to start on a current basis. Subscriptions to Report FT 125 should be addressed to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Monthly TSUSA by Country Information on a Subscription Basis

Monthly excerpts from tabulation IM 146 in the form of TSUSA subparts (or TSUSA parts, in the case of parts which are not subdivided in the TSUSA) will be supplied by the Bureau of the Census on a subscription basis. A sample report (Annex C) is attached to illustrate the content and arrangement of the excerpts which will be furnished.

The subscription price per TSUSA subpart (or part) is $8.25 for the February-December 1964 period (75¢ per month), except that for a few TSUSA subparts which contain a large number of TSUSA numbers the price is slightly higher. The order blank which is enclosed (Annex D) identifies these longer subparts and gives the subscription price for each. The TSUSA number range for each subpart (or part) is shown in the order blank, for the convenience of users in identifying the particular subparts or parts in which they are interested.

SCHEDULE A, REVISED

Statistical Classification of Commodities Imported Into the United States

A Conversion of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated to a Classification System Based on the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised

January 1964

EXPLANATION

1. Introduction

The objective in constructing Schedule A, Revised, was twofold: first, to provide a summarization of the data for the 10,000 Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated classifications into groupings which would be meaningful in terms of commodities important in the United States import trade; and second, to provide data in terms of the Standard International Trade Classification outline which are comparable, insofar as possible, to the foreign trade statistics compiled by other trading nations.

The detail shown in Schedule A, Revised, was therefore determined on the basis of the estimated magnitude of trade in the various commodities of the TSUSA arranged within the framework of the SITC.

Many judgements had to be made in relating TSUSA classifications to SITC classifications for pusposes of constructing Schedule A, Revised. The most troublesome problem involved TSUSA classifications covering commodities falling in more than one SITC classification. The necessary decisions had to be somewhat arbitrary, and they were made solely with the objective of constructing a classification system for the presentation of the import statistics. Any authoritative statement of the relation between the classifications in the Tariff Schedules of the United States and those in the SITC will come from the United States Tariff Commission. Moreover, even for the presentation of import statistics, Schedule A, Revised, is being adopted for current use without necessarily being considered final in its present form. Users of the statistics are invited to send comments or requests for changes to the Foreign Trade Division, Bureau of the Census, after experience with the statistics in this form. These will be considered in connection with possible modification of Schedule A, Revised, to be effective with January 1965 statistics. In order to receive consideration, requests for changes should be received by October 1, 1964.

2. General Description of Schedule A, Revised, and Its Relation to the TSUSA

Schedule A, Revised, re-arranges and summarizes the approximately 10,000 commodity classifications of the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated, into approximately 2,200 seven-digit Schedule A, Revised, classifications within the framework of the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised. The numbering system provides for meaningful summarizations of commodity coverage at the 5-, 4-, 3-, 2- and 1-digit levels of the numbering system. The first five digits are SITC codes to the full extent considered possible within the limits of the convertibility of the TSUSA to the SITC. The sixth and seventh digits were added to provide more detailed breakdowns where the volume of United States import trade appeared to justify such detail.

Part 2 of this paper shows the outline of Schedule A, Revised, with abbreviated descriptions for the 7-digit detailed classifications and for the 1-, 2-, 3-, and 4-digit levels of summarization. The descriptions are preliminary, and further work will be done during the year to improve them. Descriptions at the 5-digit level of summarization are not furnished in Part 2 since 5-digit summarizations of data are not being presented in Report FT 125[1].

Part 2 of this paper also shows the assignments of TSUSA numbers at the 7-digit level of Schedule A, Revised, thus providing definitions of the new classifications in TSUSA terms.

Appendix a, showing TSUSA assignments to Schedule A, Revised, in TSUSA number order, is presented for the convenience of users who wish to locate individual TSUSA numbers in the new classification system.

3. Some TSUSA Number Assignments to 3-digit SITC Groups Changed by Schedule A, Revised

For the period September 1963 through March 1964, the United States import statistics were issued in terms of TSUSA codes within 3-digit SITC group codes. With the September 1963 statistics, a correlation between the SITC group numbers and TSUSA numbers was furnished. The adoption of Schedule A, Revised, has necessitated some changes in the TSUSA number assignments shown in that correlation. Some of these changes were made to make a more appropriate assignment of the TSUSA codes to the SITC group codes; others resulted from the need for assigning to a 3-digit SITC number some combinations of 5-digit (or, in some cases, 4-digit) SITC numbers which crossed 3-digit group lines.

In order that users may be aware of differences between the data previously released for these 3-digit codes (September 1963 through March 1964) and the data to be published under Schedule A, Revised, for the same 3-digit codes in 1964, Appendix b lists all of the 3-digit codes for which the assignment of TSUSA numbers was changed, and shows the revisions in the TSUSA assignments for each. In many cases, the change in individual TSUSA number assignments does not significantly affect the total value for the broadly summarized SITC group[2]. Users who wish a comparable series of the 3-digit SITC group data for the 12 months of 1964 should obtain a new January 1964 total for all the 3-digit groups listed in Appendix b by subtracting the February total for each such group from the cumulative year-to-date total in Report FT 125. The January figure thus obtained should be substituted for the corresponding SITC group total shown in the January reports FT 110 and FT 120 and in the January reference tabulations. For February and March 1964, the 3-digit SITC totals appearing in the FT 125 should be substituted for any totals obtained from February and March reference tabulations, since these were prepared in terms of the September 1963 conversion. Beginning with April 1964 statistics, the new conversion will be used in preparing all tables.

[1]Users may total the data for 7-digit classifications having a common first five digits to obtain summaries at this level.

4. Comparability of Coverage Between Schedule A, Revised, and SITC

It is recognized that many subscribers use United States import statistics independently of any comparisons with data compiled by other nations under the SITC. The data compiled under the Schedule A, Revised, classifications, can be used in this way, and for such use of the data no understanding of the relationship of Schedule A, Revised, to the SITC is necessary. The following explanation is included here in the interest of avoiding possible misconception as to the precision which was possible in relating TSUSA classifications to the SITC, and for the information and guidance of those who wish to make comparisons of United States import data with the foreign trade data of other countries. It will also be helpful, perhaps, as a guide to an understanding of the system for users who may wish to recommend changes in Schedule A, Revised.

Complete and precise presentation of United States import statistics in terms of the SITC is not possible, since the statistics are originally collected in terms of the TSUSA, and the extent to which TSUSA classifications can be equated to SITC classifications is limited. However, the relationship between the two classification systems can be sufficiently established to permit a rearrangement of the TSUSA classifications within the SITC framework which will provide reasonable over-all comparability between the two classification systems at summarized levels, and reasonable comparability, for a substantial portion of United States import trade, at more detailed levels.

A precise understanding of the relationship of Schedule A, Revised, to the SITC at any level of classification can be obtained only by reference to the definitions of the TSUSA classifications included. Establishing a relationship in this way involves many complexities, but users interested in such a relationship for only a few classifications may wish to refer to Part 2 of this paper for the numbers of the TSUSA classifications included in the various classification levels of Schedule A, Revised, in order to make comparisons with SITC coverage. Appendix a, showing the Schedule A, Revised, classification to which each TSUSA number is assigned, may also be helpful in such a study.

[2]However, for the following 3-digit groups, the January totals on the new basis differ by $1 million or more from the previously issued totals:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 051 | 284 | 561 | 711 |
| 053 | 331 | 629 | 732 |
| 271 | 332 | 696 | 893 |
| 283 | 533 | 698 | 897 |

In a few other cases, differences less than $1 million were large in percentage terms.

The following information may be useful as a general guide to the degree of comparability with SITC, and may serve, as well, as an aid to understanding the manner in which Schedule A, Revised, was constructed.

At the 1-, 2-, and 3-digit levels, the numbering system of Schedule A, Revised, is identical with that of the SITC. The commodity coverage is not always identical, but it is believed that for most statistical purposes the coverage at the 1-, 2- and 3-digit levels can be considered essentially comparable with that of the SITC. Reasonable comparability for statistical purposes can also be expected, in most cases, when 5-digit Schedule A, Revised, numbers are identical with SITC numbers. At the 4-digit level the retention of a SITC number in Schedule A, Revised, indicates similarity of coverage, but, for the reasons explained under the heading numbered 5 below, the degree of comparability may in some cases be somewhat less at the 4-digit level for identical numbers in the two systems than at the 5-digit level.

The abbreviated alphabetic descriptions in Schedule A, Revised, reflect the TSUSA coverage and may differ substantively from SITC descriptions even where the numbers are identical. The user can make his own judgement, in these cases, as to the statistical importance of the difference by referring to the TSUSA inclusions. Sometimes, however, differences may exist even though the number is identical and the description has not been substantively changed.

When a non-SITC number is used as the fourth or fifth digit of a Schedule A, Revised, number, comparability of coverage with any given SITC classification at that level should not be expected, and there will be comparability only with combinations of SITC classifications. In a few cases, however, SITC numbers were changed without changes in coverage in order to obtain a logical numbering sequence in Schedule A, Revised. Appendix c(1) lists the Schedule A, Revised, numbers with fourth or fifth digits different from the SITC, and shows the corresponding SITC coverage. Classifications renumbered in Schedule A, Revised, without significant difference in coverage from an individual SITC classification are, of course, those for which only one SITC number is shown in Appendix c(1).

The 7-digit classifications of Schedule A, Revised, were derived from the SITC by:

(a) adopting 5-digit SITC[3] without adjustment and adding two zeros to form a 7-digit code;

(b) adopting 5-digit SITC and making breakdowns to more detailed 7-digit classifications within the original 5-digit SITC;

(c) combining 5-digit SITC without further breakdowns; and assigning an arbitrary 5-digit code with two zeros added;

(d) combining 5-digit SITC classifications, assigning an arbitrary 5-digit code, and then making breakdowns to more detailed 7-digit classifications within the arbitrary 5-digit code.

Approximately one-half of the 1,312 five-digit classifications in the SITC fall in (a) and (b) above. As explained earlier, reasonable comparability between SITC and Schedule A, Revised, classifications can be expected in these cases. Since two or more 7-digit classifications in Schedule A, Revised, may bear the same first five digits (the SITC item number) it is the sum of the coverage for all of the 7-digit classifications having the same first five digits which is comparable to the coverage of the 5-digit SITC item number. Although an actual measure is not available, it is believed that a very substantial portion of United States import trade is covered by this half of the SITC classifications.

[3]For 4-digit SITC codes not broken down into 5-digit classifications in the SITC, the SITC 5-digit code referred to here is the 4-digit code without a zero added.

5. The Disposition in Schedule A, Revised, of SITC Classifications

In addition to the above discussion of the degree of comparability of coverage between Schedule A, Revised, classifications and those of the SITC, some analysts may be interested in knowing the disposition within the Schedule A, Revised, framework of the SITC classifications which were not retained, as such. These were SITC 4- and 5-digit classifications where the TSUSA numbers which covered the content of the SITC number also included significant content which did not belong in the SITC number. Appendices c(1) and c(2) show the disposition of these numbers in Schedule A, Revised, in the order of Schedule A, Revised, and in SITC number order, respectively. It should be remembered, however, that the Schedule A, Revised, numbers in Appendix c, like other Schedule A, Revised, numbers, can be precisely defined only in terms of the TSUSA numbers included (Part 2). Appendix c is a guide to the relationship with SITC, but it is not necessarily definitive.

It will be noted that the problems represented by the lack of comparability between the TSUSA and the SITC affected the Schedule A, Revised, numbering system at both the 4- and the 5-digit level. Sometimes combinations of 5-digit SITC numbers within the same 4-digit SITC code would match groupings of TSUSA numbers. Such combinations of SITC items were made in Schedule A under arbitrarily assigned 5-digit numbers which retained the first four digits common to both items. Combinations of this type did not disturb Schedule A, Revised, comparability with SITC at the 4-digit or more summarized levels.

However, in some cases, a sufficiently accurate match of combined SITC classifications with groupings of TSUSA numbers could not be obtained within the 4-digit SITC structure. In these cases, it was necessary to match TSUSA numbers with combinations of SITC numbers from different 4-digit groupings. If the content of such combinations belonged primarily in one of the 4-digit subgroups from which the combined SITC numbers originated, an arbitrary 5-digit Schedule A, Revised, number with the first four digits of that subgroup was assigned. This resulted in changes in the coverage of the subgroups from which the combined classifications originated, as well as the subgroups to which the combinations were assigned, but in many cases the SITC 4-digit subgroup numbers were retained in Schedule A, Revised. Appendix d lists the 4-digit Schedule A, Revised, subgroups having numbers identical with SITC but having coverage different from the correspondingly numbered SITC subgroup because of these combinations. Like Appendix c, Appendix d is merely a guide, and is not intended to be definitive.

If a combination of SITC numbers which was needed to obtain a match with TSUSA numbers was such that it could not be reasonably identified with an existing 4-digit SITC subgroup, it was assigned to the correct (or most appropriate) 3-digit SITC group and given a Schedule A, Revised, number within that group with arbitrary fourth and fifth digits. In a few cases, combinations were made of SITC numbers originating in different 1- or 2-digit sections or divisions, and the combination was given a number in the most appropriate 3-digit group.

A separate guide to the resulting modifications in coverage at the 3-digit level and above is not furnished, but Appendix c(1) may be consulted to locate combinations of SITC numbers with different first, second, or third digits.

In addition to the combinations required for purposes of converting the TSUSA classifications, as described above, some combinations of SITC 5-digit numbers under arbitrary Schedule A, Revised, numbers were made in Schedule A, Revised, where United States imports were either insignificant value-wise or non-existent. Such combinations were practically always made within the next higher levels of classification (4-digit or 3-digit). These combinations are shown, along with the others, in Appendix c(1) and c(2).

6. Description of the SITC

The following description of the SITC is furnished as of possible interest to users of United States import statistics who may not be familiar with it. The Standard International Trade Classification (SITC), Revised, is published by the United Nations as Statistical Papers, Series M, No. 34, 1961. In addition, Commodity Indexes for the Standard International Trade Classification, Revised, were published by the United Nations in 1963 as Statistical Papers, Series M, No. 38. Volume One of the Indexes shows, in SITC number order, the commodity inclusions for each classification and Volume Two provides an alphabetic commodity Index to the SITC classifications.

The SITC arranges all commodities in sections and subdivisions thereof at 1-, 2-, 3-, 4-, and 5-digit levels of classification. There are 10 sections (first digit), 56 divisions (first 2 digits) 177 groups (first 3 digits), 626 subgroups (first 4 digits), and 1,312 items (5 digits). Optional subheadings account for a net addition of 59 classifications at the 5-digit level. The system is flexible, so that aggregates at each higher level may be obtained by dropping the last digit of the more detailed code. The 1,312 basic items may, of course, be further subdivided for more detailed classification as desired.

Each of the original 5-digit SITC classifications falls within one and only one classification of the Brussels Tariff Nomenclature (BTN). The BTN and its compendium of explanatory notes provide a basic definition for each of the SITC classifications, which has been incorporated into the SITC system by the United Nations in the Commodity Indexes (Series M, No. 38) referred to above.

UNITED STATES IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE FOR CONSUMPTION AND GENERAL IMPORTS OF MERCHANDISE

TSUSA Number by Unit Control by Country of Origin
(Excludes Quantity Only Items)

_____ 19___

COVERAGE: Imports for consumption are a combination of imports for immediate consumption and withdrawals for consumption from bonded warehouses.* General imports are a combination of imports for immediate consumption and entries into bonded warehouses.* The statistics include merchandise imported by government agencies as well as by private importers, but exclude American goods returned by the United States armed forces for their own use. United States trade with Puerto Rico and with United States possessions and trade between the United States possessions is not included in this report, but imports into Puerto Rico from foreign countries are included. Merchandise shipped in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another, when documented as such through United States Customs, is not included. See the foreword to Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States for a more complete statement on coverage.

COMMODITY CLASSIFICATION: Effective September 1963, the import statistics are compiled in accordance with the classifications in Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated (TSUSA) which replaces Schedule A. The TSUSA classifications in this report are arranged in numeric sequence.

SOURCE: The source of information for all of the imports included in this report is the import entry (various Customs forms), which importers are required to file with Collectors of Customs for each shipment arriving in the United States. Effective January 1962, statistical factors of country of origin, net quantity, value, and commodity classification are verified, or corrected as necessary, by Customs examiners on all formal consumption and warehouse entries. Information on warehouse withdrawals, though not subject to the examiner verification procedure directly, should be improved indirectly by the verification of the warehouse entries to which they correspond.

VALUE: The dollar value shown in the import statistics is defined generally as the market value in the foreign country, excluding United States import duties, ocean freight, and marine insurance.

UNIT CONTROL: In those instances where a TSUSA number has two units of quantity, value is presented along with quantity information for one of the units, followed by quantity information (without value) for the other unit.

LOW-VALUED SHIPMENTS: Data on formal entry shipments valued under $100 and informal entry shipments (valued not more than $250, by definition) are estimated on the basis of a one percent sample. These estimates are excluded from the detailed commodity statistics but are included in this tabulation under arbitrary TSUSA number 9999 500, by country of origin. The number of shipments included in the sample is shown in the quantity column for TSUSA number 9999 500. See the General Explanation in the front of Report No. FT 125 for a more complete statement on the handling of low-valued shipments.

TOTALS:

1. TSUSA number by unit control by country of origin.
2. TSUSA number by unit control.
3. TSUSA schedule (identified as group total).

*Embargoed cotton textile shipments are handled differently; further information on request.
